William Boyd, Earl of Kilmarnock, from Stirlingshire

Regiment: Kilmarnock's Horse          Rank: Colonel

Occupation: Landowner
Prisoner no.: 1469
Prisoner at: Inverness, Tower of London
Aged 41 years. When only ten years old he went with his father to oppose Lord Mar in 1715. Succeeded to Earldom in 1717, Died 18 August 1746. After the battle of Prestonpans he joined the Prince and was made a Colonel. Surrendered at Culloden 16 April 1746 and imprisoned in Inverness on 19 April 1746. He made a mistake supposing a troop of English cavalry was FitzJames' Horse. His own account states as his companions were escaping he surrendered to Lord Mark Kerr's Dragoons and was saved from attack by the Dragoons by the intervention of Lord Ancrum. He was sent to the Tower of London along with Lords Cromartie and Balmerino. He was tried before the House of Lords on 28 July 1746 and pleaded guilty. He was sentenced to death and executed by beheading at Tower Hill, London on 18 August 1746. After being sentenced he appealed for mercy to George II and the Duke of Cumberland.

Francis Farquharson of Monaltrie, from Aberdeenshire
Regiment: Monaltrie and Balmoral
Rank: Lieut. Colonel
Occupation:
Prisoner no.: 842
Prisoner at: Inverness

Commonly called the ‘Baron Ban’ on account of his fair hair. In 1775 he asked to be allowed to rent some of his forfeited estates. This was granted. He died in 1791. Monaltrie is near Ballater on the River Dee. Francis Farquharson raised a regiment from Deeside and Braemar. Joined the Prince after Prestonpans on 3 October 1745 with 30 men. He did not go to England but served in the actions of Inverurie, (Inverurie) Falkirk and Culloden. At Culloden he was taken prisoner and imprisoned at Inverness on 19 April 1746, before being sent to London. Wounded at unknown location. At his trial date, 15 November 1746, he was found guilty and sentenced to death but reprieved the day before his execution and sent to the London house of Munie, a Messenger. He was pardoned on condition that he went and remained abroad. This condition was altered to one binding him to confine himself to such place in England as the King directed. He was kept part prisoner at Berkhamstead, Hants until 1766 when he was released. He returned to Monaltrie where he devoted the rest of his life to improving the social and material condition of his country. He introduced into Aberdeenshire improved methods of farming, which he had carefully studied while in exile in England. His name is still cherished (in 1916) in the county as the man who did much to make Aberdeen the great farming county it became.

Surgeon. Captured at Culloden battlefield on 16 April 1746 and imprisoned at Inverness, 19 April 1746. Imprisoned along with fellow Surgeon John Rattray in a church in Inverness along with crowds of wounded prisoners. Their instruments were taken from them in order to prevent them treating the wounded prisoners. They had an interest with Duncan Forbes of Culloden and at his request they were released on Cumberland's orders during May 1746. On arrival in Edinburgh, however, they were again arrested and sent to London as witnesses in the Jacobite trials. They were finally released in January 1747.

Aged 30 years, second son of David Lindsay of Downhill. Captured at Culloden 16 April 1746 and imprisoned at Inverness on 19 April 1746. When tried in London on 28 October 1746 he was convicted and sentenced to death, but was reprieved on the way to the scaffold and pardoned on condition we went abroad 'to one of his Majesty’s colonies during the term of his natural life'. This condition seems to have been withdrawn, as he settled in London as a shoemaker. When he was taken prisoner he is said to have been robbed of his clothing and to have made himself a covering entirely of straw.

John MacIntire, from Argyllshire

Regiment: Regiment not known
Rank: Not known
Occupation: Bawman to the Pretender
Prisoner no.: 2067
Prisoner at: Inverness

Captured at Culloden on 16 April 1746 and imprisoned at Inverness 19 April 1746. Listed in the Inverness Prisoner List as 'Bawman to the Pretender'. (A 'bawman', 'bauman' or 'booman' is a Scottish expression for a tenant who is given stock by his landlord and shares any profit with him. In this context it would not be appropriate to be a 'bawman' to Prince Charles. The person taken down details probably mistook 'bawman' for Bowman as in an archer). His fate is not known. Not transported so may have died in prison.

James Stewart, from

Regiment: Duke of Perth's
Rank: Major

Occupation:
Prisoner no.: 3161
Prisoner at: Inverness

It is possible he was the son of Major David Stewart ‘late Gentleman to the Duke of Perth’ His horse was killed under him at Culloden and imprisoned at Inverness on 19 April 1746. He may be the Major Stewart who after his capture was handcuffed so tightly that his skin was broken and was kept in that condition for ten days. He was tried at Southwark and convicted but had sufficient interest to obtain a pardon as evidence was produced that he had saved the life of Major Bowles of Hamilton’s Dragoons at Prestonpans. His case was considered by the Privy Council in July 1747 and it was decided to pardon him on condition of his remaining in such place as the King should direct.

Sir John Wedderburn, Bt., from Mains of Nevay, Newtyle, Forfar

Regiment: Forfarshire (Ogilvy’s)
Rank: Captain

Occupation: Legal Profession
Prisoner no.: 3387
Prisoner at: Inverness, London

He was the 5th Baronet, born 1704, by profession a lawyer. He was factor for the Forfarshire Estates of the Duke of Douglas. He had to sell his estate of Blackness, Angus. Lawyer. Glen Prosen Company, 1st Battalion of the Forfarshire Regiment. On the outbreak of the ‘45 he presented himself to the Prince at Edinburgh and was appointed Collector of Excise at Edinburgh and was appointed Collector of Excise for Perth and Forfar. He joined the Ogilvy’s Regiment at Stirling as a volunteer and fought at Culloden where he was captured in arms and imprisoned at Inverness on 19 April 1746 before being sent to London. Also listed under Other Ranks in The Lifeguards, Elcho’s Troup, and as a Volunteer in the Forfarshire Ogilvy’s. He was tried on the charge of high treason on 4 November 1746. He denied carrying arms and pleaded that he had been three times carried off by the Jacobites and his horses taken from him. The fact that he had been a collector of taxes for the Prince, however, was fatal to him. He was convicted and sentenced to death. Before his execution he wrote to the Prince asking him to protect his wife and nine children. Plead guilty at trial. Information laid at Aberdeen. Executed by hanging on 28 November 1746.

Andrew Wood, from Glasgow or Elgin

Regiment: John Roy Stewart (Edinburgh)
Rank: Captain
Occupation: Shoemaker
Prisoner no.: 3445
Prisoner at: Inverness, London

Gentleman, aged 21 years. He appears to have joined the Prince in England. In the speech he made before his execution he said he was made a Captain and ‘raised a company out of his own pocket’. He was captured after Culloden on 16 April 1746 and imprisoned at Inverness on 19 April 1746 before being put on board the ‘Thane of Fife’, 10 June 1746, for onward transportation to London. Before his death he was received into the Church of England. He was stated to have made shoes for the Prince’s men. He himself pleaded that he had saved 9 men who had been captured by the Jacobite army, and this was sworn to by various persons before the Lord Provost of Glasgow. At trial plead guilty. Witnesses: James Paterson, Roger MacDonald, John Hay, Alan Stewart, Capt. Eyre, Lieut. Moore, Edward Smith, Andrew Johnston, John Falconer and Francis Chalmers. Executed at Kennington Common on 28 November 1746.
