MacKinnon of MacKinnon John, from Isle of Skye, Lieutenant Colonel MacKinnon' Regiment. Chief of the MacKinnon Clan. Was the only one of the three Skye chiefs who went out in the Rebellion. Died in Skye aged 7 May 1756, aged 75 years. He had been out in the '15 but pardoned. He joined the Prince on 13 October with 120 men and served throughout the campaign. He was the only one of the three chiefs in Skye who went out. He was not at Culloden as he had been sent to Sutherland in pursuit of Lord Loudoun's force. The Prince went to Skye in July 1746. Along with his nephew also called John MacKinnon was responsible for assisting Prince Charles escaping from Skye to the mainland of Scotland. MacKinnon was arrested on 11 July 1746 at Morar. He was taken to Inverness and sent to London where he was imprisoned at London (Southwark) then was in the custody of Mr Munie, the Messenger. While in London it was decided that he should be tried at Carlisle or Derby. This however was not carried out and on 19 January 1749 he petitioned for release saying he was old, 'destitute of all funds except a small allowance from Government', and 'never yet examined or anything laid to his charge. He was imprisoned in London until released after January 1749. On list of persons in the First Act of Attainder.
